

Yeshiva Tiferes Menachem is host to the Torah by the Sea 10-day program and is located in the beautiful and secluded Sea Gate, Brooklyn community overlooking the Atlantic Ocean.

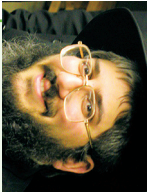

The staff of Tiferes Menachem

Rabbi Avrohom Lipskier is the founder and director of Yeshiva Tiferes Menachem. A pioneer in the field of Jewish outreach for nearly 40 years, he led the way in the establishment of the first full-time Baal T'shuva Yeshiva. With a broad knowledge of Chassidic thought, great personal wisdom and a penetrating style, Rabbi Lipskier has brought thousands of students closer to a more meaningful Jewish life. He is greatly respected for his leadership in the Baal T'shuva movement and is highly sought after on issues of personal change.

Rabbi Yosef Yitzchok Greenberg has been teaching at Tiferes Menachem since its founding in 1997. Originally from Brooklyn, NY he received his rabbinical ordination from the Central Lubavitch Yeshiva, Tomchei T'minim in New York in 1972. For more than 25 years he has been active in teaching Torah and Chassidus to Baalei T'shuva. His knowledge of Torah and Jewish tradition is both broad and deep, ranging from Halacha and Talmud to philosophy and Chassidic thought. His students number in the hundreds and thousands. He is loved for his clear, lively erudition of the Torah and his warmth and personal concern for his students.

Rabbi Aryeh Israel has been teaching Torah for more than 15 years and has been a member of the Tiferes Menachem staff since 2000. Originally from Haifa, Israel, he attended the Israeli Air Force Academy until 1985 when he began his personal journey closer to Judaism. He has traveled the United States extensively from Florida to Alaska, & Maine to California. He was educated in both Chassidic and non-Chassidic Yeshivot and received ordination as a Scribe from the Central Lubavitch Yeshiva in New York.

Rabbi Abba Patiel joined the staff of Tiferes Menachem in 2004. He is a prominent member of the Lubavitch community in Crown Heights, Brooklyn and has taught Chassidic thought to hundreds of Baalei T'shuva for more than 40 years. Rabbi Patiel was educated in Brunoy, France and Montreal, Canada, and has worked in the field of Computer Science for the last 30 years. He received his rabbinical ordination from the Central Lubavitch Yeshiva in New York. His classes are immensely popular and he is a great resource to many for personal consultation.

You are what you eat. A look behind Kashrut certification.

Rabbi Levi Garelik is a supervising Rabbi for the OK Kashrut Laboratories and a highly sought after authority in the field of Kashrut. He speaks widely on the subjects of Kashrut, Halacha, and Chassidus. Both his broad Halachic knowledge and dynamic, penetrating style make his lectures and classes enormously popular.

At the core of our beings

Rabbi Simon Jacobson is the author of the best-selling book Toward a Meaningful Life, a William Morrow publication that has sold over 300,000 copies to date and has been translated into numerous languages. He has been interviewed extensively by major print media around the country, including CNN with Larry King, and the Charlie Rose Show. He has traveled and lectured in 200 cities in the United States and abroad and has been interviewed on over 300 radio and TV shows, including a feature story on the CBS News Show, "The Best of Us."

With so many do's & don'ts, is there room in Judaism for self-expression?

Rabbi Yosef Y. Jacobson, one of the most sought-after speakers in the Jewish world today, has lectured to Jewish and non-Jewish audiences in six continents and thirty states and is the author of the tape series "A Tale of Two Souls" and "Captain My Captain." His weekly internet essays on Judaism, mysticism and psychology are read by tens of thousands the world over.

Getting a Straight answer from a Jew—The backbone of Talmudic debate

Rabbi Yossi Wigler is the founder and Director of Heichal Menachem, a Torah Community Center in the heart of Flatbush, NY. He has lectured and taught classes to a wide range of audiences around the globe, including communities in Kenya, Bosnia, the Virgin Islands, Japan and South Africa. Originally from Cape Town, South Africa Rabbi Wigler received his Rabbinical Ordination under the Chief Rabbinate of Israel. His approach to learning is a powerful blend of both the revealed and inner dimensions of Torah wisdom.
